

PURPLEDRAGON  N

signature cocktails since 2016

about

Purple Dragon is a recreational services company, at this time focused on signature cocktails and artisanal drinks.

Purple Dragon (PD) was created to challenge the status quo of the hospitality industry in Nigeria; with a very limited range of drinks sold in most Nigerian bars and most of them beer or spirits that one can get anywhere else, as well as overpriced, badly made, very 'conventional' cocktails; Purple Dragon was created to celebrate the spirit of creation, exploration, choice and freedom.

Every Purple Dragon drink was either created from the bottom up with over 30 iterations in the case of the Jack and Jane Sparrow, or adapted from existing mixes and then made special as in the case of the El Bastardo and Bastard Martini.

Our promise at PD is a cup of a specially made, thoughtful and unique cocktail. At PD, you don't pay for packaging, you support a dream, a craft, a passion, a struggle and most of all, you support the desire to excel and reject mediocrity.

A glass of iced pink cocktail with a lime wedge and two straws. The glass is filled with a vibrant pink liquid and ice cubes. A fresh lime wedge is perched on the rim. Two straws, one red and one green, are inserted into the drink. The background is a soft, out-of-focus purple and pink bokeh. The text 'fruity cocktails' is written in a white, cursive font across the middle of the glass, with a horizontal line underneath. The logo 'PURPLEDRAGON' is at the bottom center.

Pete Edochie V P D

Vodka, Coconut Liqueur, Orange Juice and Peach Juice

Pete Edochie was one of the very first cocktails created at Purple Dragon. It is a mild, refreshing and fruity cocktail with a pleasant yellow/orange colour. Contrary to what most regulars would say, Pete Edochie was not so named because it makes you philosophical, but because of its colour.

Bleeding Mulatto (Barika Sunset) V P D

White Rum, Dark Rum, Vodka, Orange Juice, Simple Syrup

The Bleeding Mulatto or Barika Sunset is a very alcoholic orangeade. It is named thus because of the bright yellow colour and the bleeding effect which it retains at the top of the glass until it is stirred.

Whistleblower V P D

Whiskey, Cafe Rum, Orange Juice, Pineapple Juice

In 2017, there was a spate of whistleblowings in Lagos and most parts of Nigeria among the political class. This cocktail was made to capture the essence of whistleblowing and with its pleasant and soft infusions, the whistleblower is one of our fan favourites.

Tower of Babel V P D

Vodka, Simple Syrup, Orange Juice, Peach Juice, Hibiscus Infusion, Limes and Cucumbers

The Tower of Babel was created by accident; it was a rainy night in Barika, Ibadan and we had just returned from the bar at 11pm. Due to our policy of freshness, Purple Dragon does not store fresh juices but squeezes/produces them when needed, thus that evening we had a little bit of leftovers from the bar and then we started building them in a wine goblet. When the Hibiscus Infusion was floated on top and we took the first sip, we knew we had found gold, thus, the Tower of Babel was created.

MUFASA P D

Chocolate Vodka, Cafe Liqueur, Blackcurrants, Strawberry Juice

The MUFASA was created to celebrate the hustlers, kings, and urban ninjas who are constantly striving to excel and create a world that is better for their children than it was for them. The MUFASA was created at the request of one of PD's patrons, Mr Terkimbi Joshua Aju in Lagos, Nigeria

Oooh! Mon Dieu D

Dark Rum, Rosso Vermouth, Peach Whiskey, Coconut Liqueur, and Pineapple Juice

Created on a rooftop in Abidjan, Cote d'Ivoire in the suburbs of Yopougon Maroc, the Oooh Mon Dieu is a quintessential French cocktail made from drinks gotten directly from Abidjan. It is a deceptively mild, refreshing and sweet cocktail that after the first sip, you are guaranteed to look at the glass and exclaim Ooooooh! Mon Dieu!

Jack Sparrow V P D

Rum, Coconut Liqueur, Plain Yoghurt, Orange Juice, Limes, Simple Syrup, Anise Seeds

If Jack Sparrow was stranded on an island, what would he have with him? This was the question we tried to answer when creating this cocktail. Jack Sparrow has come through over 30 iterations and modifications before we arrived at our present build of JS. A deceptively strong drink, the Jack Sparrow is not for people who can't hold their liquor (or function while drunk as in the case of our honourable Mr Sparrow.)

Jane Sparrow V P D

Rum, Coconut Liqueur, Strawberry Flavoured Yoghurt, Orange Juice, Limes, Simple Syrup, Anise

The Jane Sparrow was created as a companion to the Jack. Jack is perceived as a masculine drink while the Jane is perceived as feminine; don't be deceived by its pink colour because it is just as strong as the Jack.

Spacefuel V P D

Gin, Rum, Vodka, Blackcurrant Juice, Strawberry Flavoured Yoghurt

This mouthful of taste is another deceptively strong drink. With the blend of flavours, the taste of alcohol is quite faint which makes this a perfect drink to relax with and watch a movie or read your favourite book.

Trapmaster (Edo Airways) P

Chocolate Vodka, Stout, Coca Cola

“Liquor before beer, you’re in the clear; Beer before liquor, never been sicker”

The Trapmaster was made to be the ultimate party activator. This very strong, very intense bomb shot cocktail is so strong that people who have taken more than 3 at a stretch have reported blanking out the whole night, hence why it is nicknamed Edo Airways (it takes you from place to place without knowing how you got there.)

This irresponsible cocktail is best enjoyed with friends (who aren’t drinking it) to ensure that you make it home in one piece.

Dirty Bastard P D

Whiskey, Rum, Bitters, Beer, Lime Juice and Simple Syrup

This international cocktail is one of the few non-signature drinks developed at Purple Dragon, Our twist on the Dirty Bastard uses rye whiskey and a splash of rum for flavour, making this one of the tastiest beer cocktails ever.

PURPLEDRAGON

El Bastardo (Cuba Libre) V P D

Rum, Limes, Coca Cola

The Purple Dragon take on the popular Cuba Libre utilizes several types of rum in the drink when infused with muddled limes to create a unique taste that has made this one of Purple Dragon's fan favourites.

Androgin V P D

Gin, Orange Juice, Lime Juice, Sprite

Androgin is a sour, tart cocktail that is medium to high strength. The Androgin is a refreshing summer-ish drink meant to be enjoyed ice cold and served creatively in either DIY cups or fancy glasses, you pick!

All Nigerian Badass V P

Local Gin, Orange Juice/Pineapple Juice, Hibiscus Infusion, Simple Syrup

The ANB is a distinctly homegrown cocktail made using local gin, local fruits and the popular Nigerian hibiscus leaves. While the alcohol content is low, the ANB is a refreshing, soothing and sweet cocktail.

spirit cocktails

PURPLEDRAGON

Dragonsbreath P D

White Rum, Vodka, Gin, Creme de Menthe with Orange Juice

The Dragonsbreath is a strong, intensely alcoholic drink meant to be accompanied with a side of orange juice. The 'Breath is one of our oldest drinks and is a perfect companion for dinner or small chops,

Bastard Martini P D

Gin, Rosso Vermouth

The Purple Dragon Bastard Martini is a simple play on the popular international Martini; in our version we substitute premium gins for our homegrown local gins (Ogogoro) and use sweet Rosso Vermouth instead of a dry variety.

Le Perroquet (The Parrot) P D

Pastis, Creme de Menthe

The Parrot is another French cocktail enjoyed internationally. This is not a signature drink but one we love and look to enjoy with friends.

Le Tremblement de Terre (The Earthquake) P D

Pastis, Whiskey, Gin

The Earthquake is a spirit drink made with the iconic and flavourful Pastis. Also not a signature drink, this is one of the drinks we have enjoyed throughout our travels.
